Werner Smith

In Memoriam

An institution is the lengthened shadow of one man

How true Emerson's statement is, for to us and to thousands who preceded us, Mr. Smith was Horlick.

He came to be thought of in this way not because he had been on the faculty since the school's first year, nor because he was principal for 13 years. Mr. Smith came to symbolize Horlick because — well, because he was Mr. Smith.

In few large high schools do students know their principals as well as Rebel knew Mr. Smith. His friendliness, humor, patience, understanding, unselfishness, and humility — these were the characteristics which we discovered in Mr. Smith and which caused us to give him our respect and affection.

The statement "He was a good man" was repeated by many at the time of Mr. Smith's passing; although the statement is brief, its meaning and truth are profound.

Of the many lessons we have learned at Horlick, the most important one for us to remember is the lesson Mr. Smith taught us, a philosophy by which he lived:

To best serve yourself, you must serve others.

Al,
I've really enjoyed knowing you this year, and I hope that I may grow up to be a man just like you. Peter.

Lena Liliquist points out her home in Sweden. She is one of 1172 exchange students in the U.S. this year who are sponsored by the American Field Service.

Horlick's nominees for the 1959 summer exchange students are Jerry Reichwald, Karen Damm, Barb Levin, and Karen Erickson.

Lena, having spent the school year here, has learned to enjoy American cooking.

Al,
I never

I'd always heard

Now that I've met you

Homecoming Festivities 1958

We didn't win

On Thursday, October 16th, we celebrated our sixth annual homecoming with the traditional parade and bonfire. Thirty-odd floats participated, all of which showed exceptional originality and effort. Homeroom 237 captured first place and second place went to Homeroom 319. A record-breaking turn-out of nearly 700 students took an active part by cheering and showing their school spirit at the bonfire.

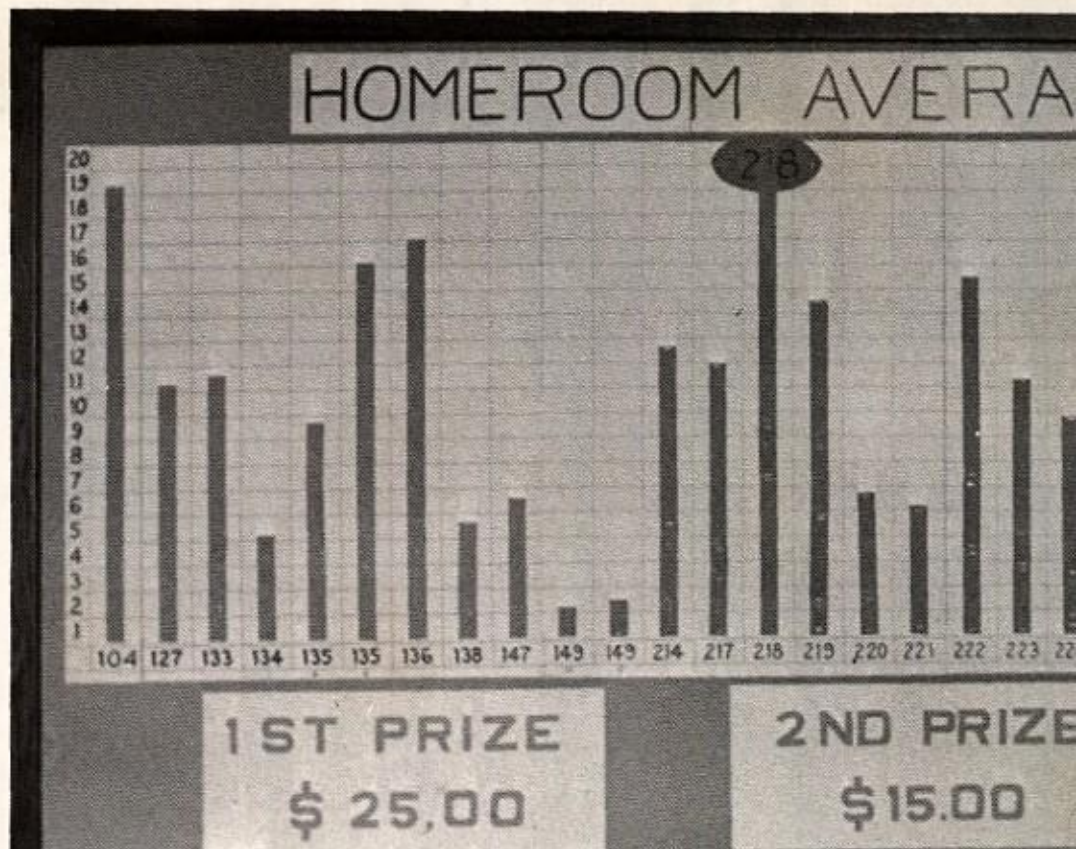

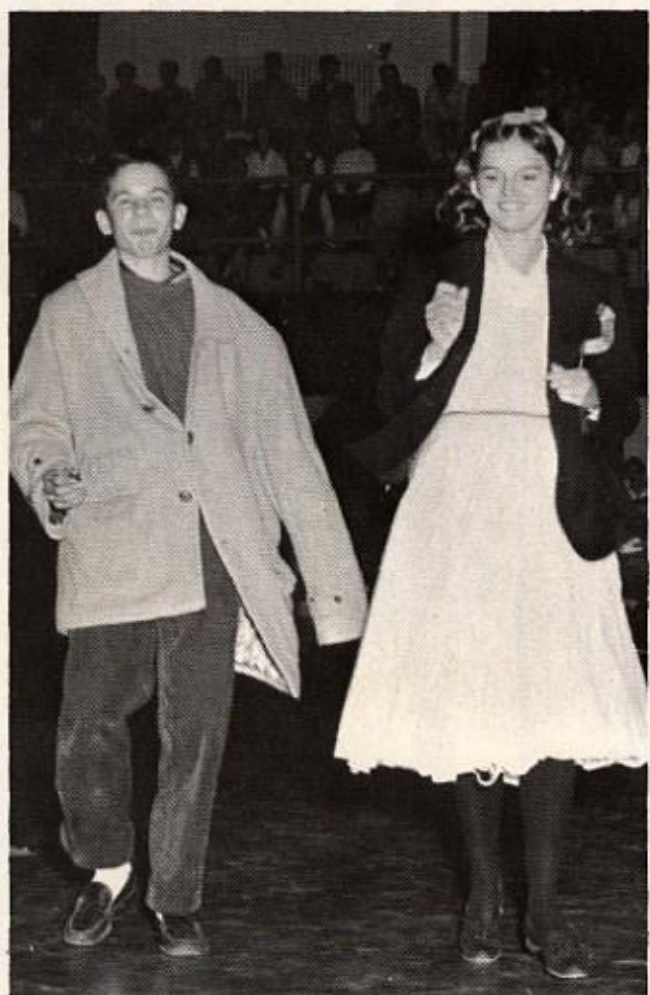

Though we didn't win our homecoming game with Madison East, all sorrowful hearts were quickly healed at the all-school party, "Tackle Twirl," held Saturday, October 19th. Queen Sharon Cloutier, First Attendant Judy Schuppe, and Second Attendant Siegrid Apple were presented to the school at the pep assembly on Friday and later honored as royal guests at the all-school party. The co-chairmen for homecoming were Gretel Hanson and Bob Dahl.

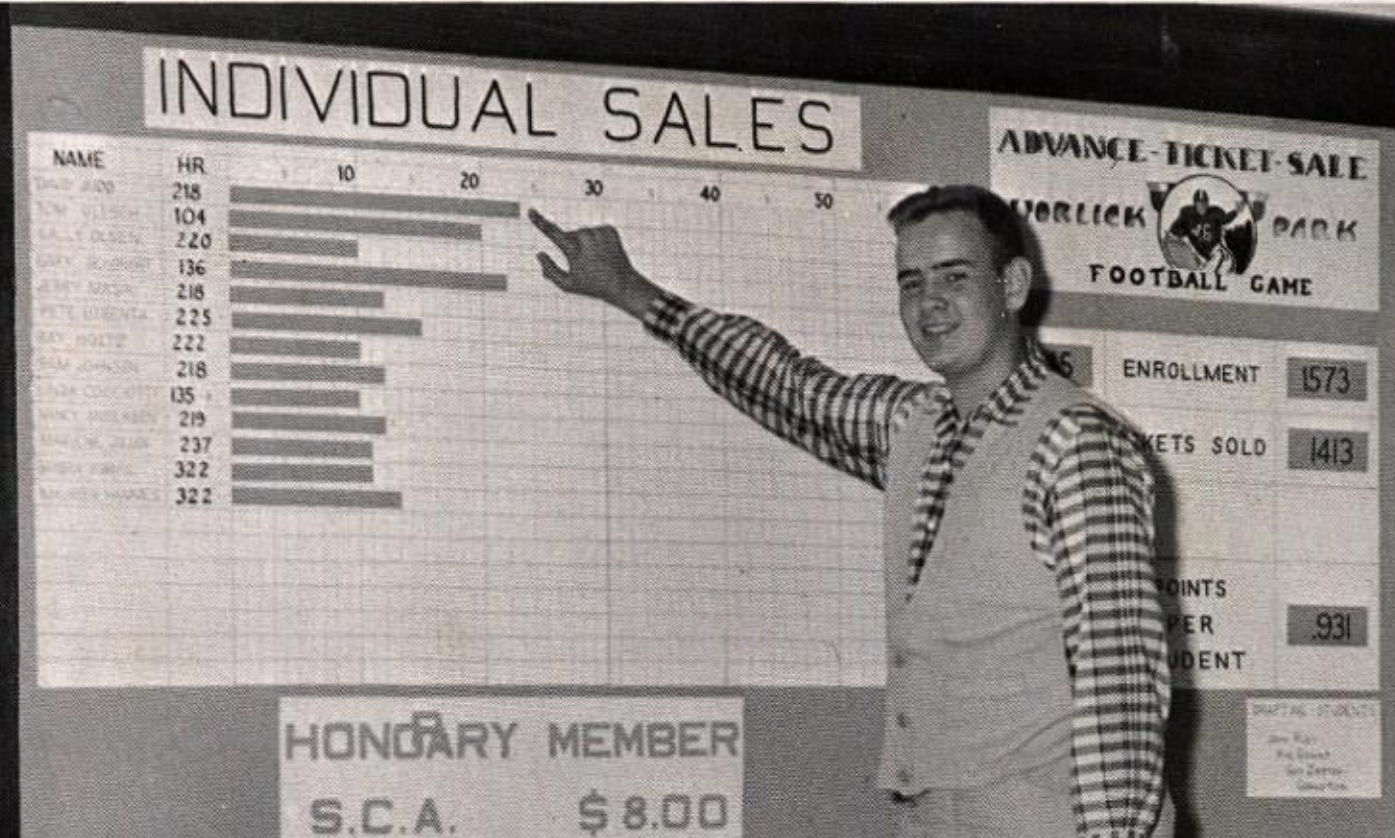

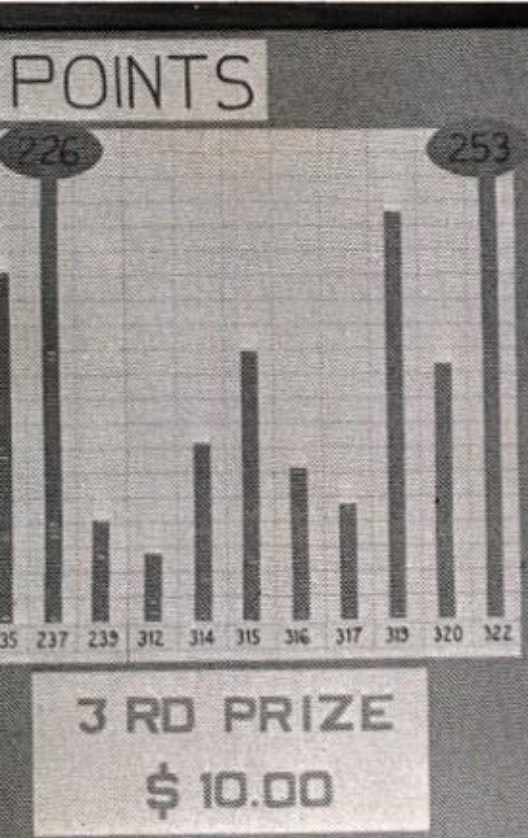

Park dream boy

Homeroom 322 won first place in ticket sales, second to 237, and third place to 218.

Oops . . . hoops

David Judd was the winner of the individual sales.

Horlick-Park Day

Hello, darling . . . Hazel Horlick, here.

The Horlick-Park frivolities began with the flag-raising ceremony, November 5th. School got off to a good start that day with the traditional Horlick-Park challenge assembly presented by students from both schools. Public interest and enthusiasm was built up through a ticket selling contest. Though our Blue 'n Orange opponents made the culminating football game a game to forget for us, at least we came home with the laurel leaf of victory in ticket sales.

Christmas in Song and Spirit

The annual sing-out assembly held on December 19th was a huge success. Circled around the Christmas tree in the gym are Lorelei, A Cappella, and Mixed Chorus directed by Mr. Hubbard. Upon entering the gym, the audience was aware of the dimming overhead lights. Soon the darkness was pierced by the colored spots directed on the massed chorus. Following a program of traditional Christmas music, the entire student body joined in the singing of the carols.

Adding to the spirit of the festive season were gay hall decorations and door displays. The silver-trimmed tree in the main lobby greeted the students and did much to cast a holiday spell on all.

For the eleventh consecutive year Tex Reynolds was on hand (and crutches) to accept the Christmas baskets for the "good Fellers" at our sing-out assembly. This year's chairman, Sue Smith, presented the 43 baskets to Tex.

Sue Spangenberg adjusts the leg of Homeroom 220's real gingerbread boy which won first place.

Carol Lindgren proudly displays the littlest angel which won second place for Mrs. Berteau's homeroom.

Presenting . . .

MAGIC MOMENTS

Last year's king, Ken Simonson, crowns his worthy successor, King Ron, while court member, Jim Shepherd, and attendant, Mary Sue Light, stand in honor of the occasion.

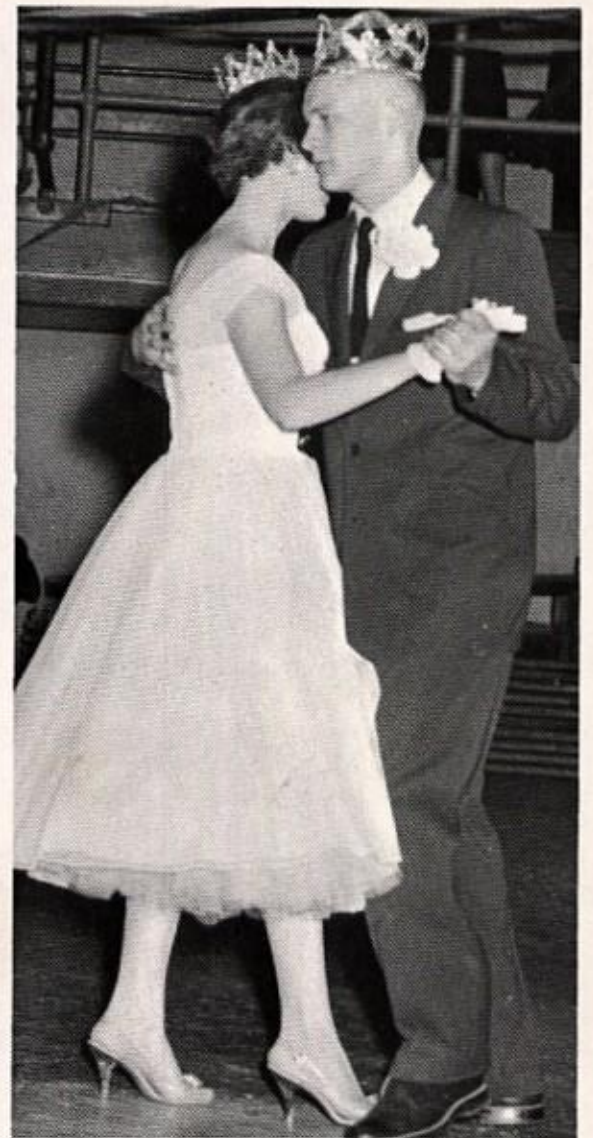

Blue Notes played it soft and sweet from Magic Moments held March 21 in the gaily decorated boys' gym.

What would a party be without the refreshments? TO THE RIGHT, King Ron and Queen Judy start the coronation dance, Magic Moments.

And I promise to do my best to . . .

Politics Horlick Style

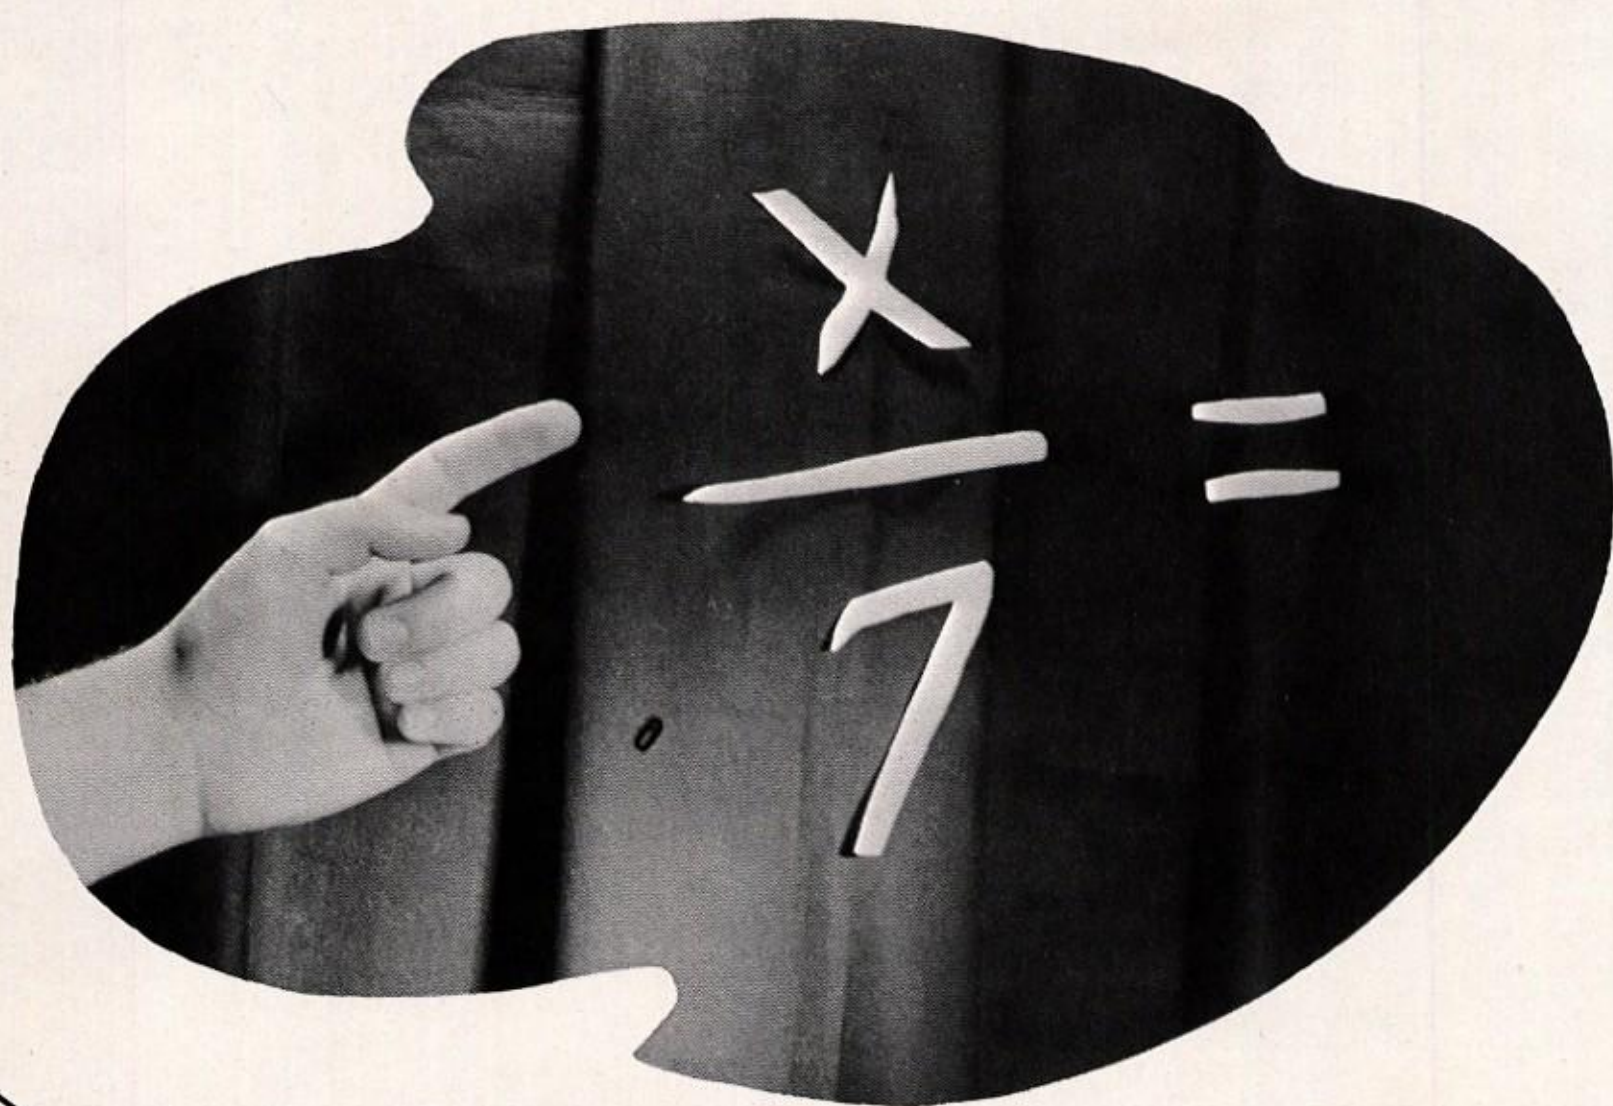

The mid-term Student Council elections were held on December 11th. In the running for Secretary-Treasurer Marilyn Baumann and Marilyn Wilda; for Vice President, Al Pavia and Dave Pellegrin; for President, Roland Freeman, Peter Litrenta, and Tim Harvey. After the usual rigorous campaign Marilyn Baumann, Al Pavia and Peter Litrenta came out victorious.

One, two, three, kick!

Ah, shucks, twaren't nothin'.

Polaris

The energetic Polaris staff strives to create a publication where the students of Horlick will have a pictorial record of the school-year's events.

Pictures make the yearbook. It is the Polaris' staff hope that the readers are satisfied with the result.

Herald

The Herald, Horlick's fortnightly newspaper, has its staff headed by Editor-in-Chief, Lee Zierten and faculty advisor, Miss Jarvis.

At the TOP inspecting copy hot off the press with Miss Jarvis are Marlene Julian, Jim Shepherd, Mary Jo Peterson, and Lee Zierten. To the CENTER LEFT, Jerry Hisgen, Dave Bartlett and Fritz Jacobs listen-in on a presstime discussion between Jean Dygon and Bob Beckenbaugh.

In the CENTER RIGHT, Barbara Boldus, editorial cartoonist, plans a little surprise for next week's edition. Meanwhile, John Larsen, Judy Southwell, and Harrison Brown present last minute changes to Sue Smith and Gretel Hansen.

Rebel Rousers

Though no club at Horlick has a monopoly on school spirit, Rebel Rousers has done much to organize it. Within the past year Rebel Rousers has added a new membership requirement whereby a "pledge" is expected to earn six points through participation in various spirit-building activities. These points are accrued by selling at the club-sponsored bake sales, drawing and painting posters publicizing sports events, attending out-of-town games, and working in the coat check-room at basketball games. Of the many services rendered by Rebel Rousers, two of the outstanding were the Rebel-Q for the varsity football players and the pot-luck for the basketball players. Another newly initiated activity in the past year was a sports night held for club members, the wrestling squad, and cross-country and track teams. Pictured to the left are the officers and boards of Rebel Rousers: FRONT ROW: Miss Jarvis, advisor, Nat Browne, Judy Southwell. 2nd ROW: Maureen Hammes, Gretel Hansen, Marlene Julian. 3rd ROW: Pete Litrenta, Jim Shepherd, Bob Dahl.

Hi-Y

Horlick's Hi Y club has completed one of its most successful seasons in the past few years. Under the leadership of its presidents: Pete Litrenta, first semester, and Jim Smith, second semester, and advisor, Mr. Hancock. During the first semester the traditional Tawasi-Hi-Y panel discussion was held. Typical questions were asked and answered; refreshments followed the discussion. As a service project, the boys volunteered to use their free periods to help the handicapped children at Wadewitz School. Hi-Y members watched over the children in the swimming pool and helped in many other ways. During football and basketball seasons, Hi-Y sponsored dances at the YMCA following the games. The "Y" provided an informal atmosphere for either record or band dances. The profits from these dances are used to fill the Christmas baskets donated by Hi-Y. A portion of the returns is turned over to the YMCA World Service Fund, and at the close of the year the remainder of the money is donated to Horlick for some worthy purpose.

The officers of Hi-Y for both semesters are, STANDING: Al Pavia, vice-president, first semester; Mike Nerad, secretary-treasurer, second semester; Dave Pellegrin, vice-president, first semester; and Jim Smith, secretary-treasurer, first semester and president, second semester.

Tawasi

Tawasi, an affiliate of the YWCA, is an important service club at Horlick. The club donates its time and money to many projects, pep assemblies, parties, and dances.

Tawasi also has an interesting program for its members. Below, the Tawasi girls and their dates walk to Lincoln Field where the annual Moonlight Hike is held. After the hike, box lunches and pop provide refreshments.

The arrangements for the activities of the club are tentatively planned by the cabinet which consists of the officers for both semesters and the club advisors, Miss Molner and Mrs. Berteau.

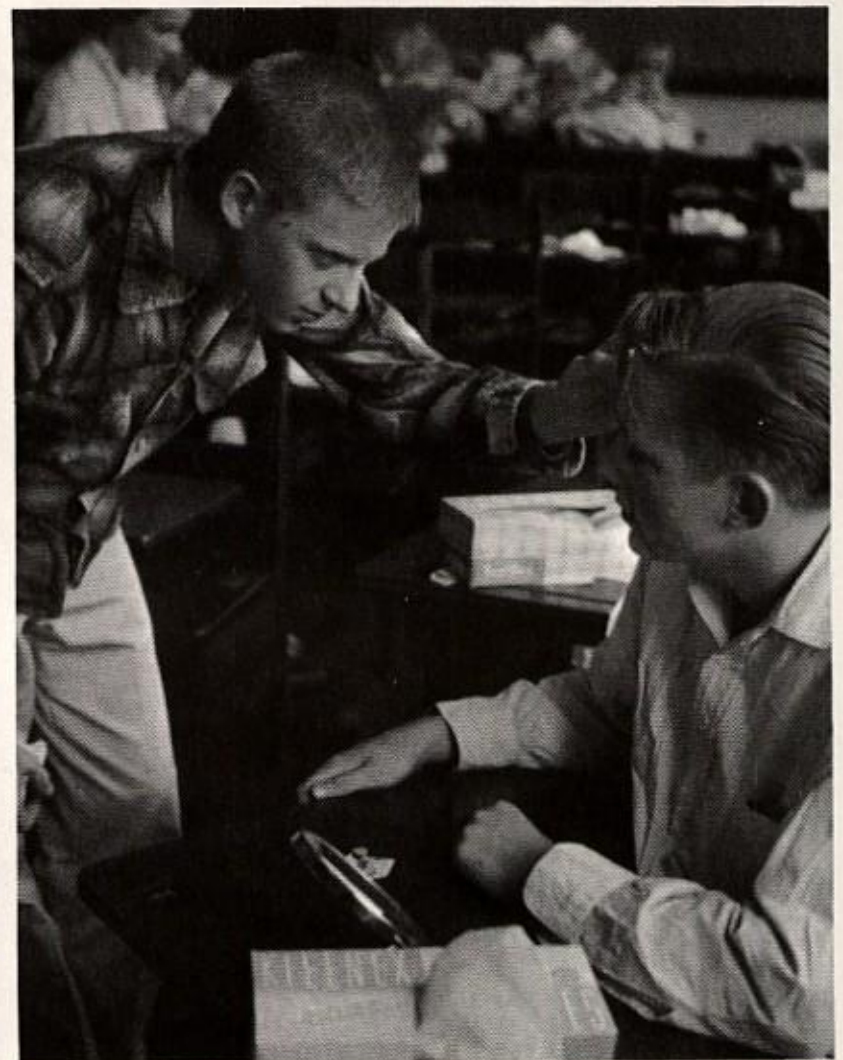

Tawasi members and friends annually decorate the Y for Christmas. To Tawasi the hanging of the greens has become as traditional as the yule log and mistletoe.

On Stage, Everyone

Horlick's major dramatic contribution of the year was The Remarkable Incident at Carson Corners. The play was presented in the auditorium of the Wadewitz Elementary School, where the cast had the use of a new stage, lighting, and seating facilities. Mr. Mooney directed the energetic group of 29 players who gave three commendable performances. The play pointed out that carelessness of one person may not amount to much, but combined with the carelessness of others, it may result in tragedy. In spite of bad weather for the opening night's performance, a sizable number of interested spectators attended each night.

Honor Society

National Thespian Society

Students obtain membership in this organization through the earning of points by participating in dramatic productions. Members of Troupe 1810 are Mr. Mooney, Joni Lindstrom, Roland Freeman, Sharon Buisse, Dennis Petersen, Rocky Litrenta.

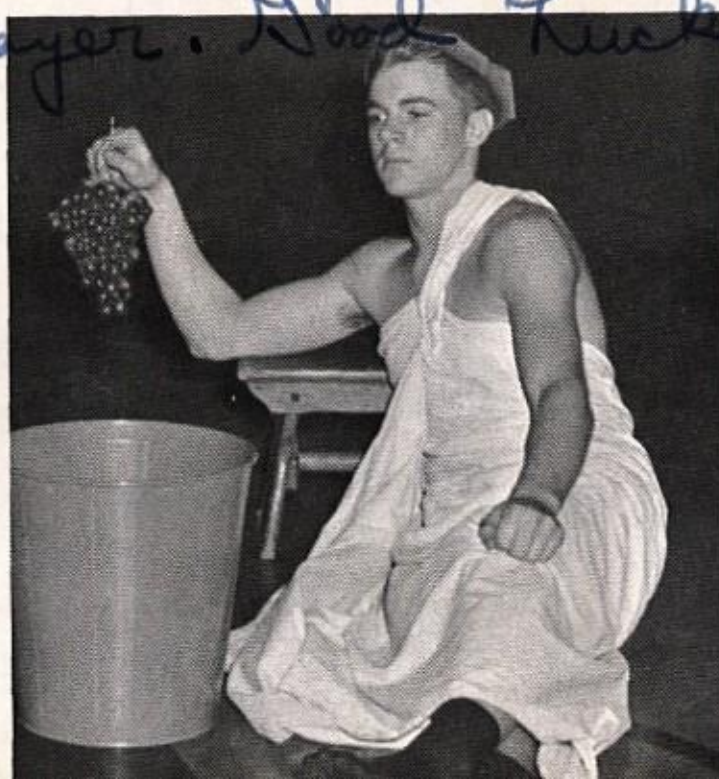

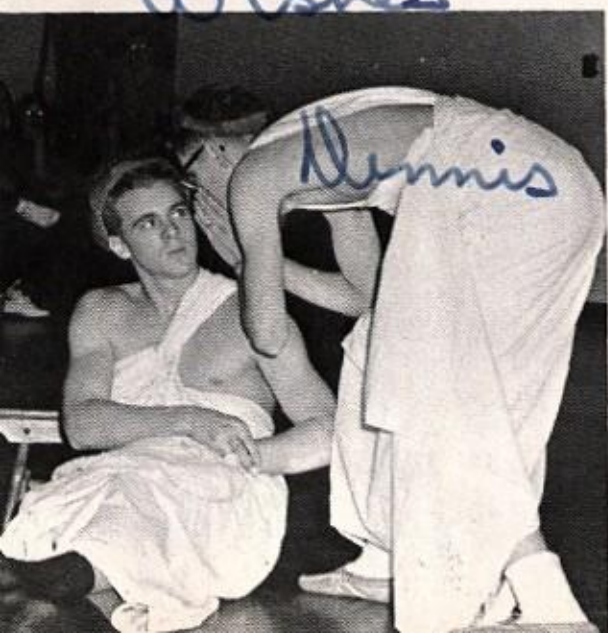

Well, dearest Al - my husband has made this year most enjoyable. You help it all, and your encouragement is well stimulating. I hope only the 93 percent of members will arise to see you in person.

Writers, Inc.

Writers, Inc. was founded in 1951, the purpose being to create for its members an outlet for their literary aspirations, interests, and enjoyment. Members write compositions and short stories and join in analyzing their own work. Besides original composition, the members examine the works of great authors through readings, recordings, and talks by guest speakers. To provide an informal atmosphere for these discussions and speakers, the club meets at its members homes. To the right are the officers and advisors. Pictured from left to right are: Marti McMurray, president; Mrs. and Mr. Vail, advisors; Roland Freeman, vice-president. Sue LaPour, secretary-treasurer, was not present for the picture. Club members also sponsored a skit for the school assembly. The skit was lifted from Julius Caesar and was transcribed into a farcial comedy.

Hear Al, or should I say Mr. Webster? Allow me to introduce myself, Cassius. You look like a soother. Good Luck and Best Wishes.

Below we get a glimpse of one of the exciting games between Co-Rec and another pioneer league team.

Co-Rec

Co-Rec, a club comprised of Horlick and Park students is an affiliate of the YMCA. Because of its affiliation and the size of its membership, Co-Rec offers many types of entertainment. Monthly sport-nights are held where members may bowl, play ping-pong, swim or dance. After home basketball games, Co-Rec sponsors dances, and for out-of-town games, Co-Rec sponsors bus trips.

An outstanding feature of the club program is the week-end trips to Camp Anokojig. Here there is horseback riding, archery, canoeing, boating, nightly camp fires, square dancing, corn roasts, and many other activities. These and other programs are planned at the weekly executive board meetings held at the YMCA.

Le Cercle Francais

French Club is an extracurricular activity held once a month. Its program is planned for everyone's enjoyment. Student participants, to the LEFT, present an original skit at their regular meeting. The cast enjoyed this presentation as much as the onlookers.

For a special program, the club went to the Folk Fair in Milwaukee. There they saw French gourmets and became connoisseurs of Gaelic delicacies.

Diversified programs constitute an interesting meeting where one can parler français, learn French customs, and have a good time.

Sodalitas Latina

Der deutsche Verein

Advanced Latin Club members, RIGHT, and Latin Club, CENTER, hold monthly class meetings. Some members give oral reports based on Roman life and times. Others sing Latin songs and add variety to their meetings. The pleasant diversion breaks the uniformity of the regular school day for club members.

German Club holds its meetings in class. The highlight of the year was its Christmas party when German customs and folk dances were taught. Students mastered German dances which were presented at the Language Club Banquet. The banquet was planned and presented by the combined foreign language students.

Two of the most unglamorous jobs in Horlick are held by the Cafeteria and the Library Assistants. The stomachs and the minds of a good many students would be emptier if it weren't for the efforts of these few who put duty above reward. Granted, we would probably have a library and a cafeteria without them, but we are all assured of an easier and pleasanter stay at Horlick with the services they perform.

ABOVE, the Cafeteria Assistants, headed by Mrs. Johnson and Miss Taylor, are David Briske, Bruce Aceto, Nancy Newton, Lena Liliequist, Bob Brooks, Bonnie Pilling, Sandra Miller, Bob Wolff, and Peter Litrenta.

Credit is given where credit is due, and credit should be given to this year's sensational cross-country squad, coached by Mr. Hubbard. The hustling Horlick harriers finished the '58 season with a record of winning a total of six dual and triangular meets. The Rebel runners placed second in both the Lake Shore Invitational and Wisconsin State Cross-Country meet. Those placing for Horlick in the state meet were John Boomsma, 4th; Jim Boomsma, 18th; Steve Ott, 20th; John Blackmar, 23rd; and Chuck Eifler, 42nd.

Throughout the '59 basketball season, the Horlick Rebels showed signs of great potential and were a constant threat to the leading Big-8 contenders. As indicated by the statistics to the left, most of the games lost by Horlick were by margins of only a few points. Horlick tied for fourth place in Big-8 competition. Showing improvement in the last half of the season, the Rebels dropped only two of its last eight starts. In tournament play Horlick won the sub-regionals by defeating South Milwaukee and Park. The Rebels lost to Milwaukee Lincoln in the regional play-off at Park. Coach Belden looks forward to a strong season next year with the return of eight juniors who played varsity ball this year.

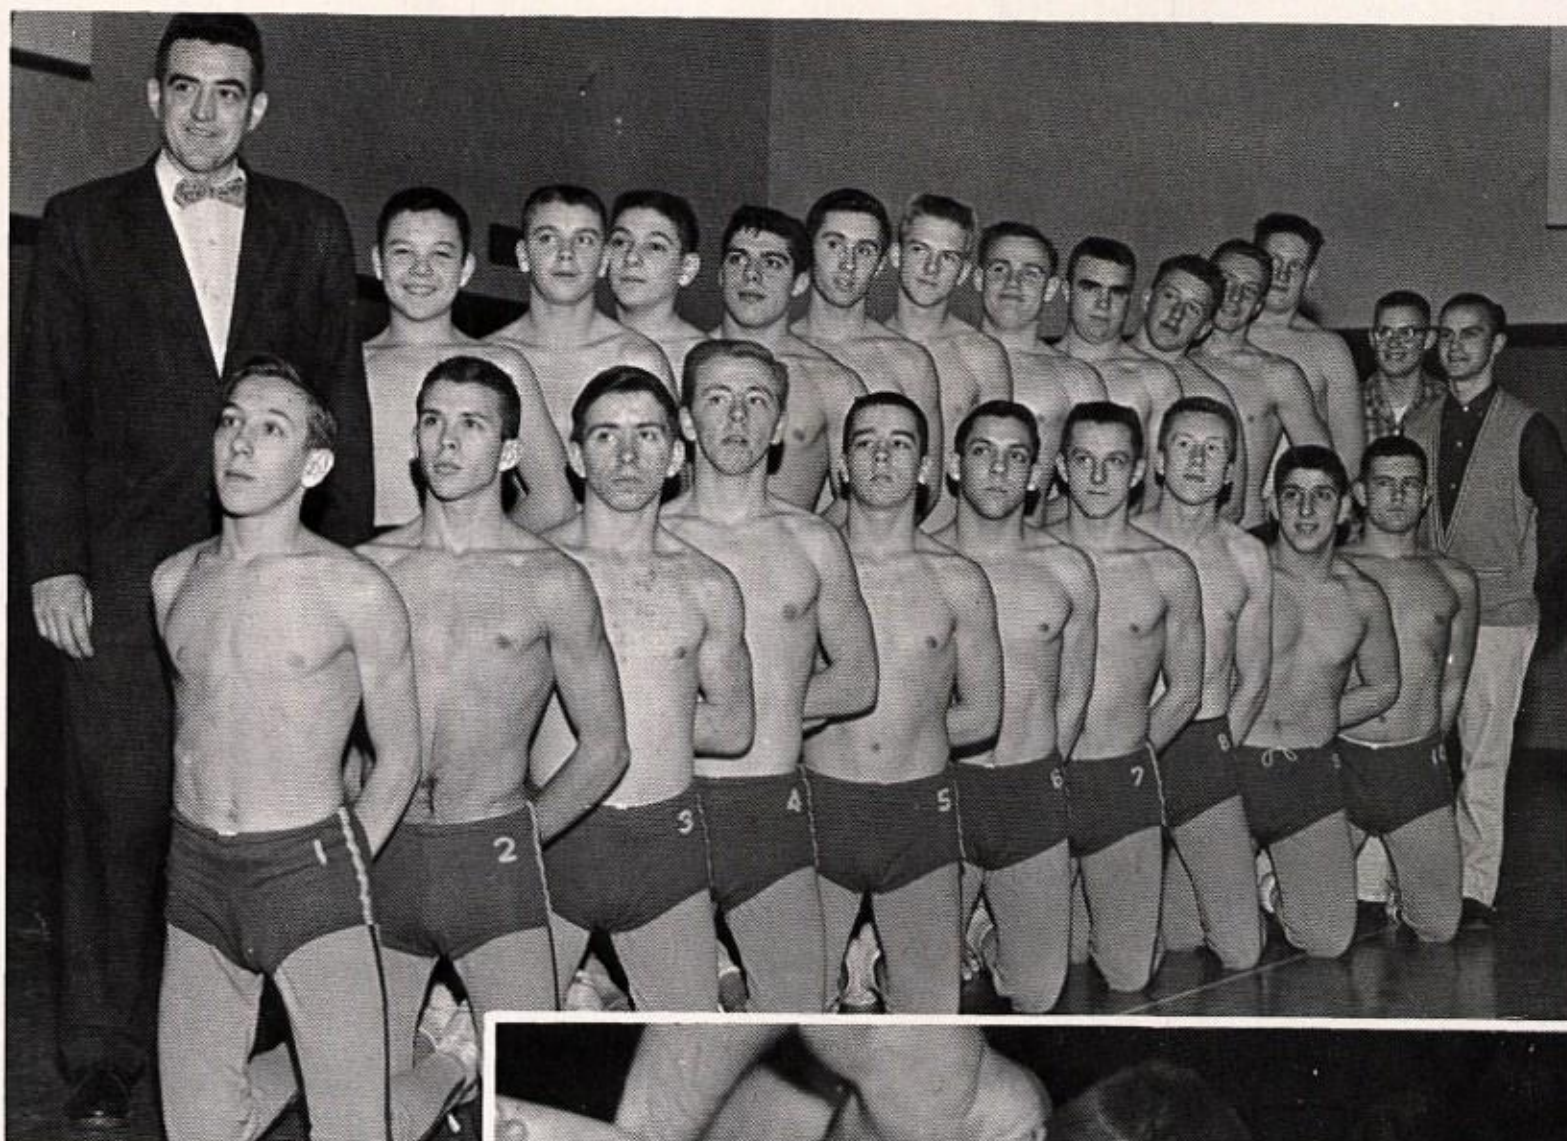

"B" Squad Basketball

Wrestling Squad

This year's wrestling team had a not-too-successful season. Hampered by bad luck, lack of experience, and superior competition, the Rebel wrestlers managed to win only two meets all year. Towards the end of the season our boys finally began rounding into shape. Three of the outstanding wrestlers on this year's team who brought home a few victories were Pete Kalagian, Fritz Jacobs, and Paul Vermey. Vermey is the only one of the three returning next year.

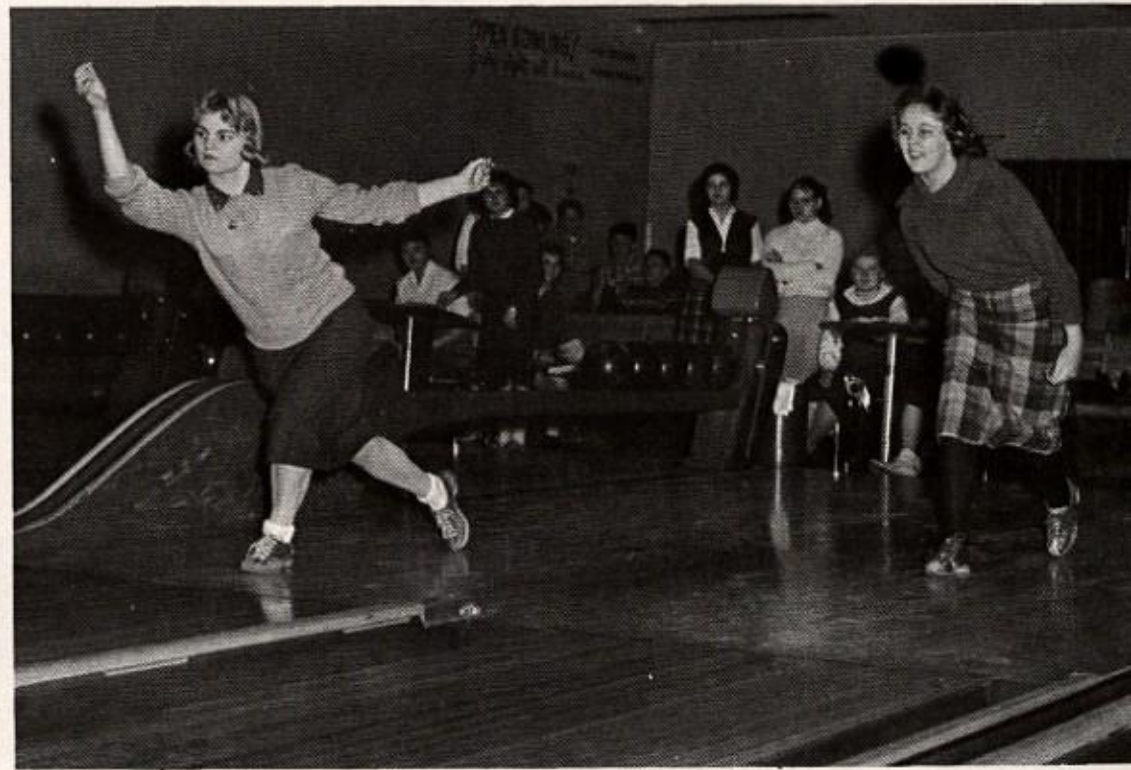

Coaches

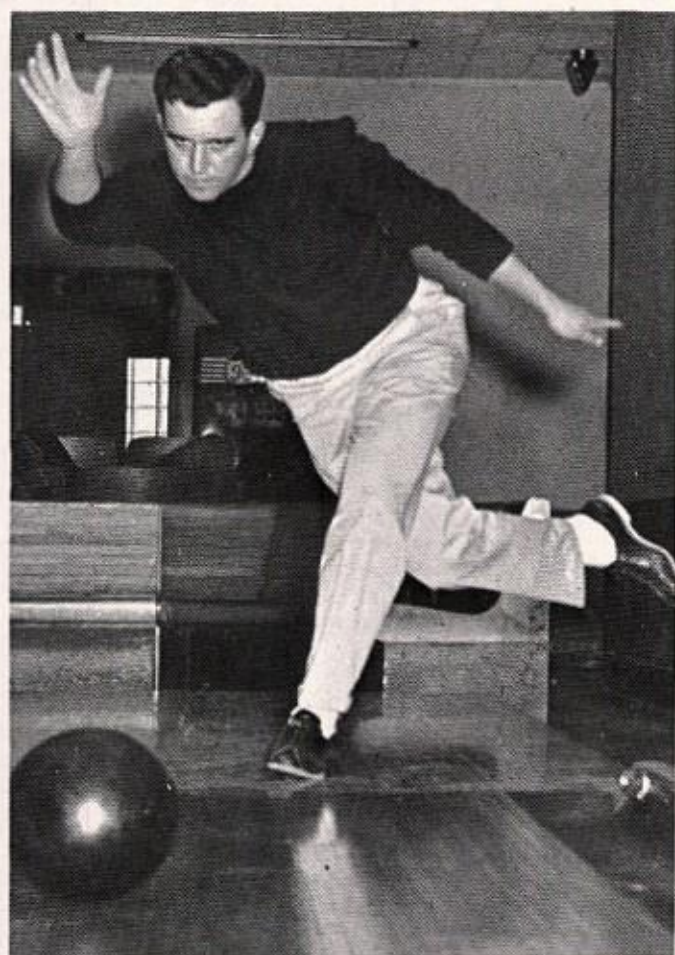

The members of Horlick's coaching staff find themselves well occupied throughout the entire year. The guidance and training they give their teams require much patience and a willingness to put in many extra hours after school. Our athletic program reflects the effort of the coaches. STANDING: Mr. Brown, Mr. Butera, Mr. Christensen, Mr. Ewers, Mr. Piggins, Mr. Curtis, Mr. Hubbard. SEATED: Mr. Belden, Mr. Stewart.

Girls' Bowling

The girls' bowling club, under the direction of Miss Fietering, is a wholesome outlet which promises relaxation, coupled with excitement and pleasure. Every Monday after school, forty girls meet at Douglas Bowl for a few hours of fun while improving their averages and competing for league honors.

Boys' Bowling

The boys' bowling team, coached by Mr. Stewart, came through with a successful season. Each Wednesday, the boys gather at Douglas Bowl to improve their game. The top league bowlers of this season are Fred Schmidt, Mike Kadin, and Dick Johnson. Left above, Frank Perekovich is aiming for a strike. To the right Frank's friends make sure the scorekeeper tallies the mark.

The Diamond Gang

Nice try, but he was safe.

Baseball is a sport which is rapidly becoming one of the most popular, both for the team and the fans, around the Horlick Campus. Last year's team was one of the few brighter spots in the school sports. The team finished with a 6-6 conference record, behind Big Eight Champ Kenosha, followed by Janesville, Madison East, Madison West, and Central. In non-conference competition, the Rebels finished with three wins and no losses.

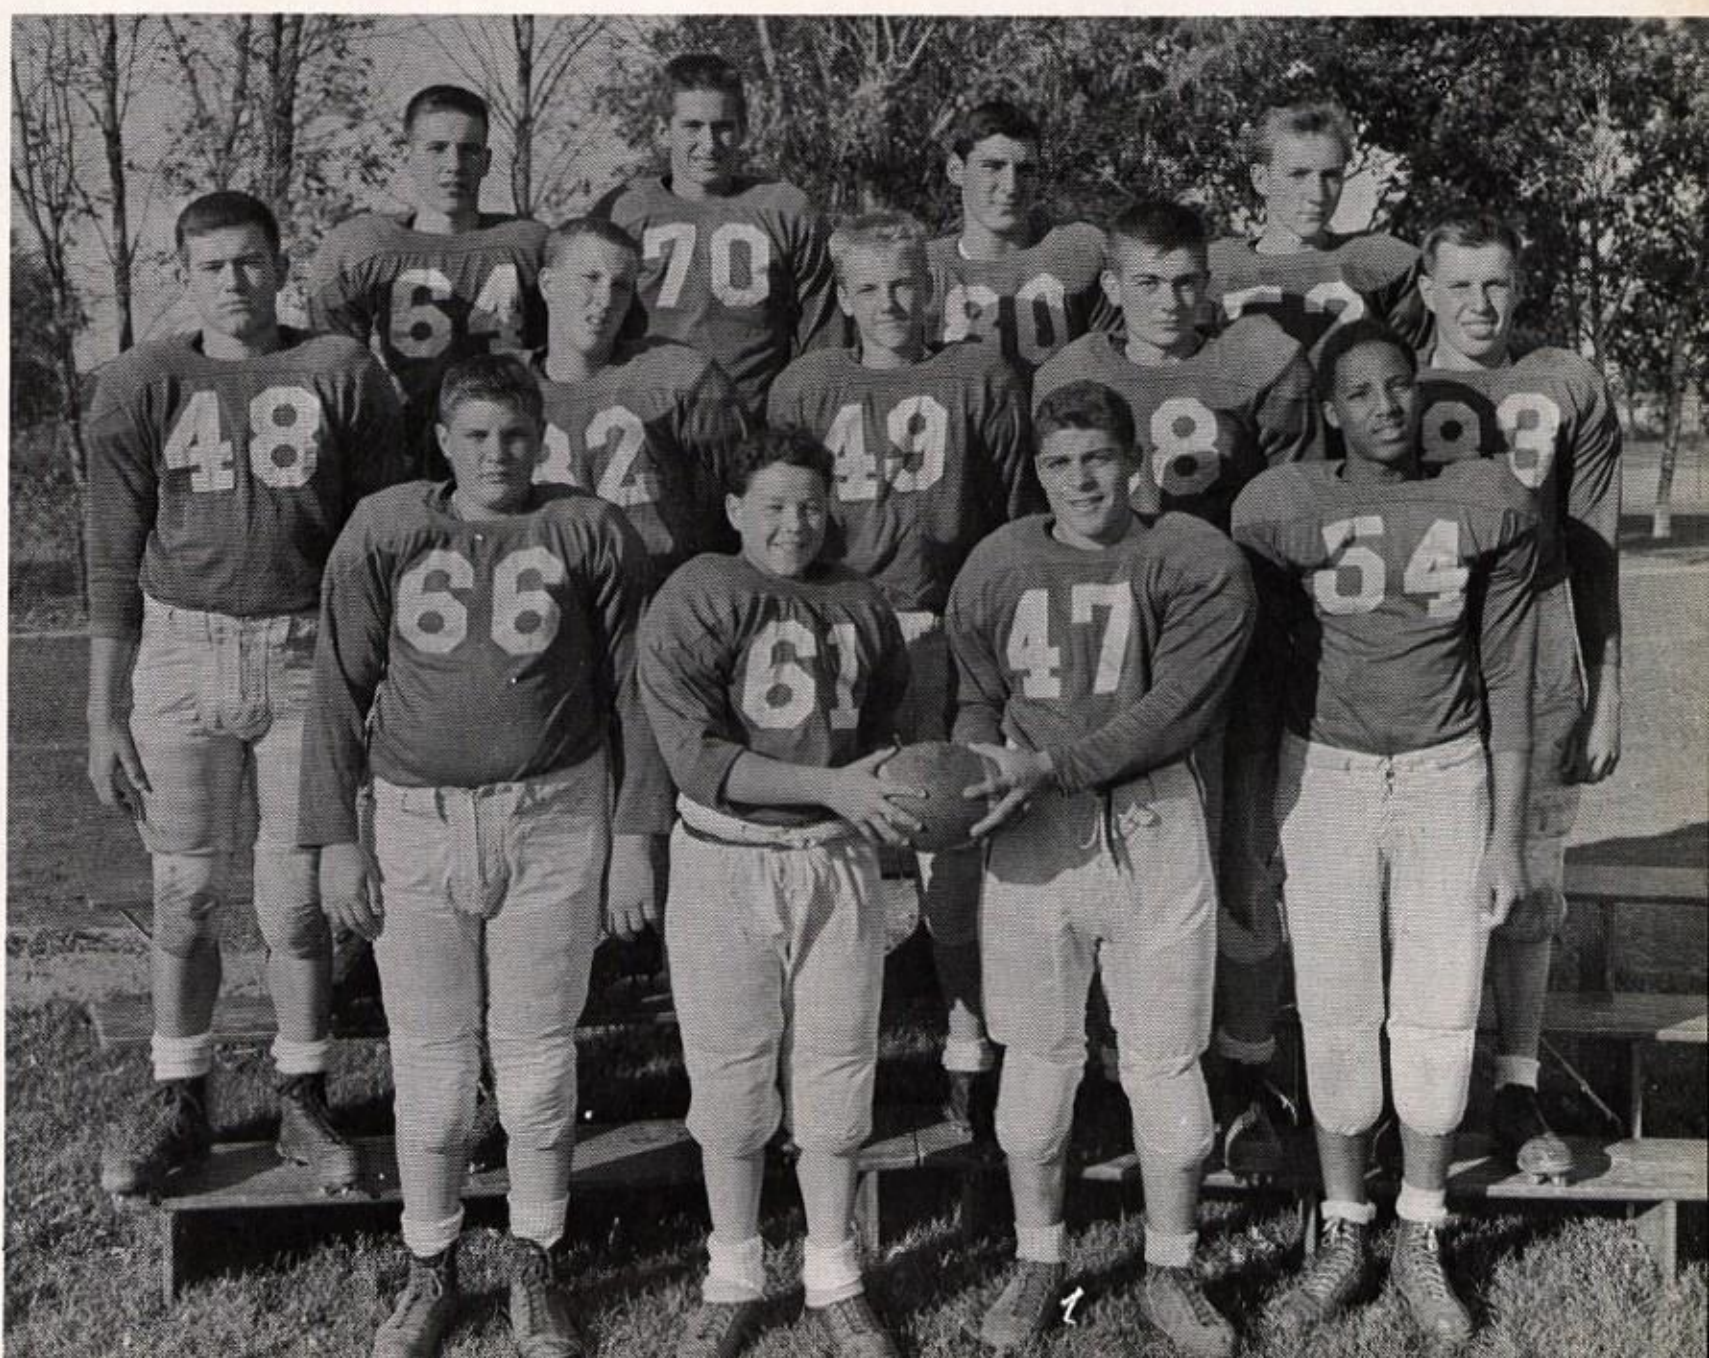

The team is expected to be very strong this year, and with a few good breaks, the team might turn into the Big Eight championship. The Rebels have seven returning lettermen, four of whom are seniors: Gary Schonert, Ron Anton, Dick Johnson, and Frank Perkovich. Three are juniors: Ron and Don Matt, and Brian Baillie. Helping out the returning lettermen are Jim Mascari, Paul Vermey, and Dave Pellegrin.

Top men of the 1957-58 season in the batting department are Dick Johnson, .417; Gary Schonert, .333; and Don Matt, .313. Not far behind are Ron Matt and Brian Baillie who are expected to help out in this department.

Horlick Gridders Lack Have Spirit

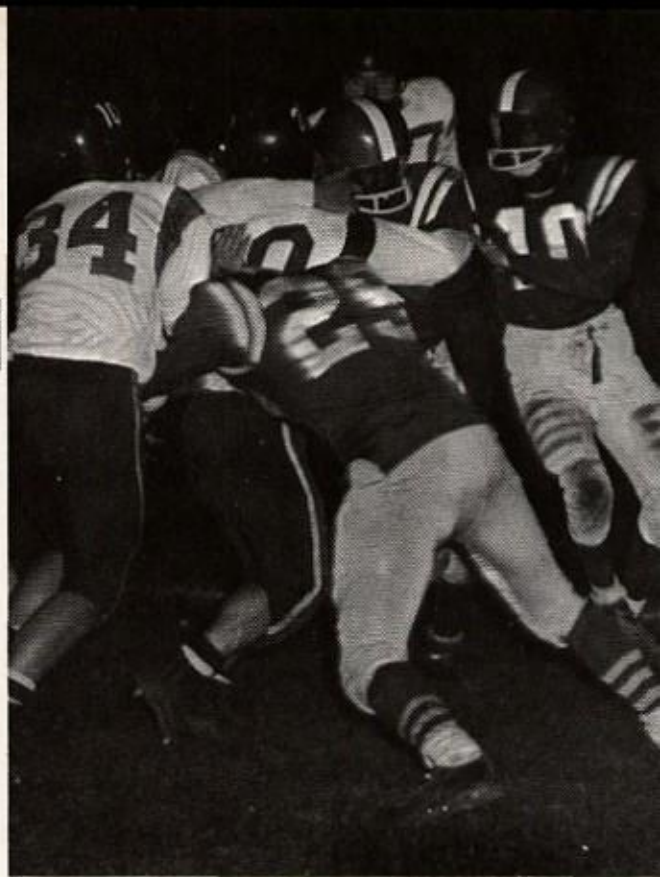

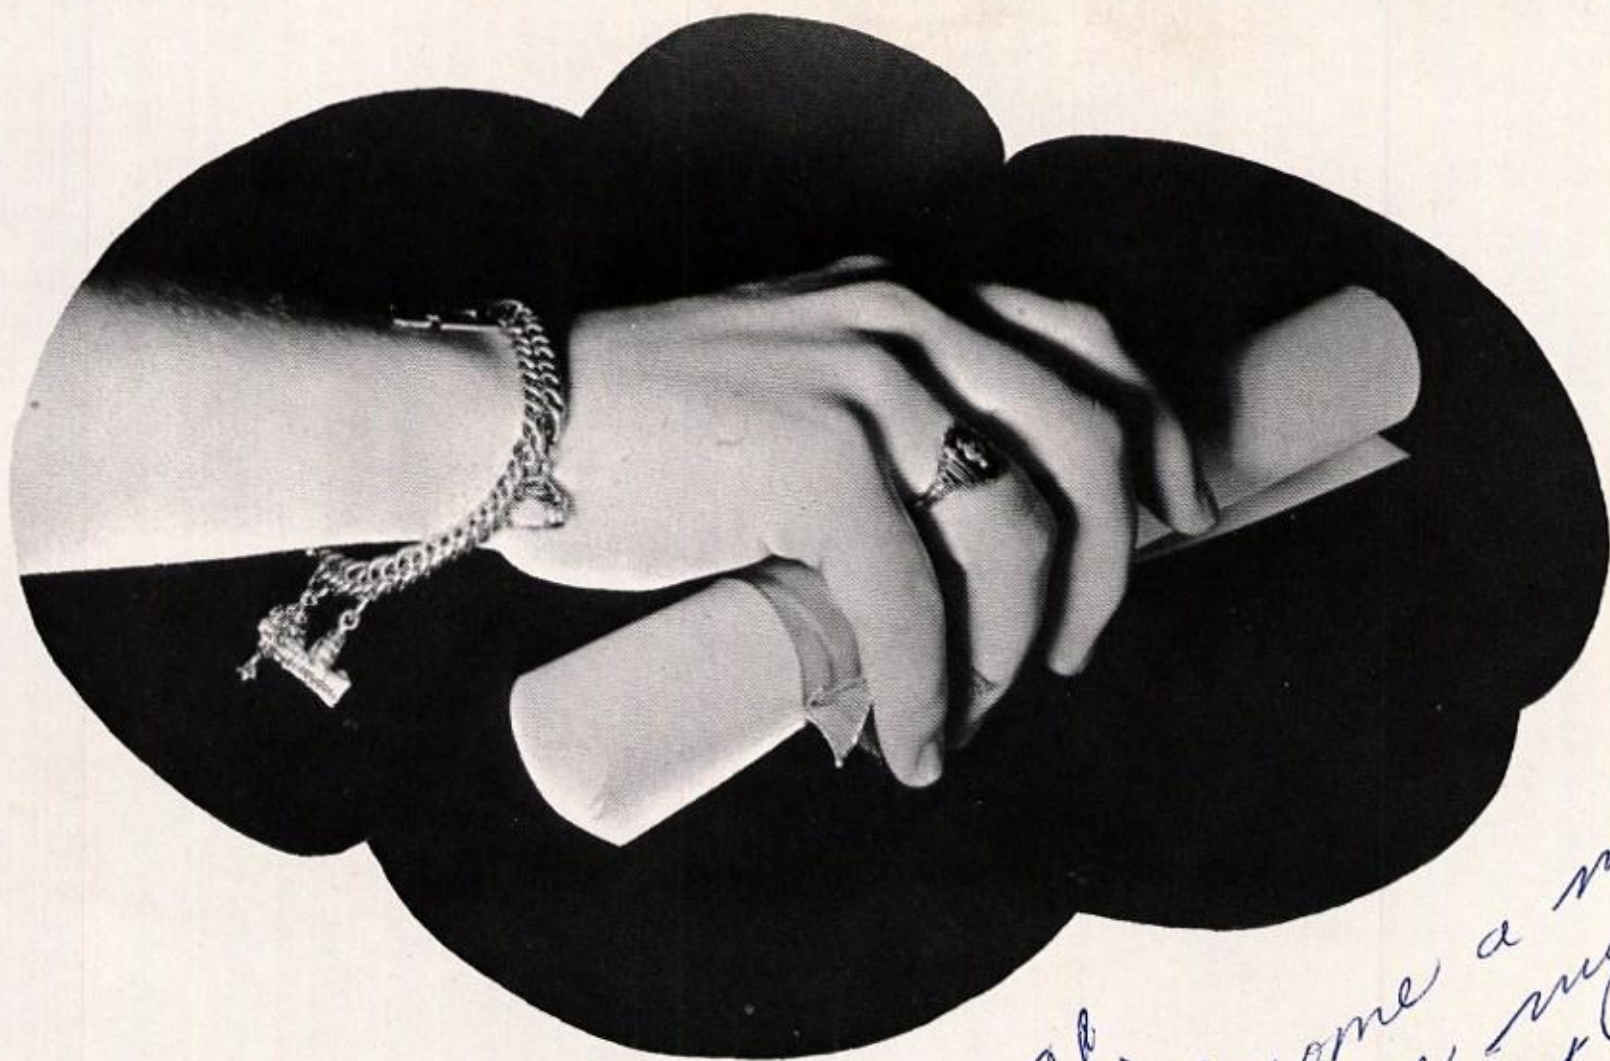

Scoring Punch but and Fight

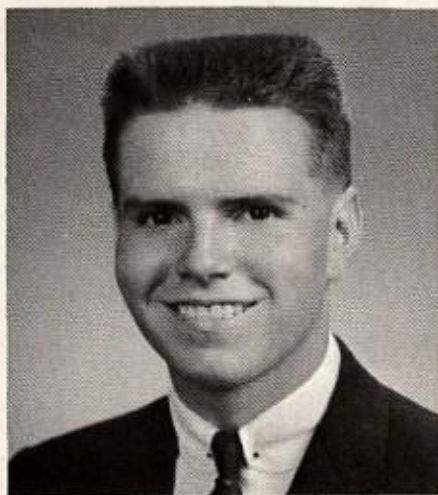

Horlick gridders came through the '58 football season with as much spirit as when they started. In every game the Rebels entered, they were in there to win; however, the Big Eight was found to be its strongest in many years, and the best place Horlick could take was 6th. The team's successful sieges were impressive in beating Madison Central and Beloit. The Rebels also astonished Madison West's powerful eleven by holding them scoreless in the last three quarters of the game. The Horlick team was hampered in the backfield with the loss of Steve Zold during the Janesville game because of a knee injury. Steve, a senior, had until his injury been averaging 8.6 yards a carry. Passing by Gary Schonert, Don Matt, and Brian Baillie netted Horlick a total of 724 yards. This season's team was headed again by Coach Belden, who was ably assisted by Ewers, Curtis, and Brown. "B" Squad coaches were Christensen and Butera.

Al,

I hope you weren't saving this page for anyone. If she wants to write something, let her find her own room. Anyway, I won't take much space. I just want to wish you the Best at Carroll. But I'll be seeing you regularly just the same.

Roland

6/3/59

Al, good luck, but with your grades you'll see you need it. I'll see you at De Molay.
Milton here

To Alfer,
your wit and amazing
command of mathematics have astounded me many times.
I've enjoyed the year and one-half that I've gotten to know you.
Luck at Carroll next term.
Sincerely,
Garry Hagen

Hi,
It was fun going to Waukegan with you even though your little brother is crazy and doesn't like my purse. I hope I'll at least be seeing you at church.
Evelyn Robotka

Al
you made math bearable & understandable.
Good luck
Bob Dahl

Al, It's been loads of fun having you in English class. Stimulus and above all: Writing in good luck in college and whatever you do after. Have a peaceful summer.
Love Distinguished.

Al,
I'm just writing
you a little note to say how much I enjoyed you in English class.
Good luck
in college and whatever you do after.
Love
Distinguished
